Nixon Makes Direct Attack On Morse

Lends His Support To McKay; Believes Oregon To Back Ike

MEDFORD, Ore., Oct. 26 (AP)—Vice President Nixon made a direct attack tonight on Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) declaring that Eisenhower supporters who vote for the senator will be "casting two votes which are diametrically opposed."

Nixon flew here to support the candidacy of former Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay, who is trying to unseat Morse, a No. 1 target of Republicans since he left the party four years ago.

The vice president said in a prepared speech he had no doubt Oregon would give President Eisenhower a majority again this year.

But a person who supports both the President and Morse, Nixon said, "is voting to send to the Senate a man who has in the past and will in the future work against the President's programs."

Supported Eisenhower

Nixon said many Democrats had supported the President on foreign policy questions but this, "unfortunately does not apply to Mr. McKay's opponent." His judgment in voting against the majority of both Democrats and Republicans when he opposed the Formosa resolution has been proved to be dead wrong.

"The President's strong and firm leadership in this area avoided war on the one hand and surrender of territory on the other." This resolution, passed in January, 1955, put Congress on record overwhelmingly as backing steps Eisenhower considered necessary to preserve the independence of Nationalist China on Formosa and adjacent islands.

Nixon resumed aerial barnstorming in his chartered plane today for his last invasion of the Pacific Coast in the campaign.

Stopped In Montana

En route here from Chicago he stopped at Great Falls, Mont., and at Walla Walla, Wash., to try to aid Republican Gov. Arthur Langlie in his fight to unseat Sen. Warren Magnuson (D-Wash.).

But Nixon's principal effort for the day was the speech against Morse. He has said the senator, though popular, can be beaten this year because of the strong Eisenhower tide Nixon feels is running.

Nixon asserting that Democratic control of the present Congress "sabotaged the Eisenhower domestic program."

"The election of a Republican President and a Republican Congress will see the greatest progress in our history in legislation which will provide better schools, housing, medical care, welfare, labor relations, civil rights and developments of water and power resources," Nixon said.

Russia Tank Crews Desert

VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 26 (AP)—Franz Groh, Austrian business man, said tonight some Russian tank crews had deserted to the Hungarian rebels in Budapest.

Groh said this added to the confusion, because both sides were frequently wearing the same uniform.

Groh, who returned from the Hungarian capital tonight, estimated the dead in Budapest alone at between 4,000 and 5,000.

Soviet tanks, he said, were shooting into the west railway station in Budapest, planes were flying overhead and the whole city echoed with artillery and anti-aircraft fire.

Noel Barker, a British news correspondent who also came out of the capital, said he heard explosions like bombs dropping from planes at the Danube island of Csepel where rebels had barricaded themselves in a big factory.

"Friend" Held In Slaying

Irwin Norman Axelrod (left), 31, owner of a Lancaster shoe store, looks at a switch-blade knife being examined by Undersheriff Pete Pitchess (center) and Sheriff Eugene Biscallus which they say is similar to one used to kill Mrs. Sally Carp, 29, in her home October 8 near Los Angeles, Calif. The officers said Axelrod confessed killing Mrs. Carp, a family friend, "because she threatened to tell my wife after I had resisted her advances."

Truman Assails Ike As Part Time President

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 26 (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman tonight called President Eisenhower "a part time do-nothing Republican President."

"Some people say they like Ike," Truman said in a prepared speech. "I like Ike, too, but I don't like him as President. Ike is a good man at taking orders. I employed him myself a couple of times, and he does a pretty good job when he has a good boss."

Truman said Eisenhower has broken as many of his 1952 campaign promises as "the Republican 80th Congress did at that special session."

"In many ways," Truman said, "the campaign this year reminds me of 1948. The main difference is that in 1948 we were running against a do-nothing Republican Congress. This year the Democrats are running against a part time do-nothing Republican President."

Truman also criticized Vice President Richard Nixon.

"You can't vote for Ike without voting for tricky Dicky," he said. Truman told a Democratic rally here that Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver are "putting on a terrific campaign." He added that he hoped the people are listening to the Democratic candidates for president and vice president because they are telling the truth.

The federal government, Truman said, did not make a start on a single major multipurpose dam from the time Eisenhower took office until this election campaign. Even worse, he added, the Republicans have given away the site in Hells Canyon and "are giving away at least four" other sites.

"With another four years of this kind of government," he said, "the people won't have a dam site left—and I don't care how you spell it."

Truman said Nixon has "neither the character nor the qualifications to be president." He added that in California "even the leaders of his own party don't trust him."

Police Report Plane Wreckage Found In Woods

NEWVILLE, Pa., Oct. 26 (AP)—State police reported tonight that the wreckage of an airplane, believed to be a C119 Air Force Flying Boxcar, was sighted in a densely wooded area of this south central region of Pennsylvania.

They said it had not yet been determined what type of plane it was nor whether there were any casualties.

Earlier a spokesman from the U.S. Air Force base at Olmsted Field said an Air Force Flying Boxcar had crashed into a mountain side near this Cumberland County town.

Harold Hickernell, public relations officer at Olmsted, said the C119 was nearly six hours overdue on a flight from Smyrna, Tenn.

At Smyrna, spokesman at Sewart Air Force Base confirmed that "planes from the middle Tennessee base were in the area of the crash. The officials said they had received no report of the wreck and did not know the number of persons aboard the plane."

A C119 normally carries a crew of four or five, officers said.

Ike To Undergo Physical Exam

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—President Eisenhower will enter Walter Reed Army Hospital tomorrow for the complete physical examination he promised the nation in advance of the presidential election.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said today Eisenhower will remain at the hospital approximately 24 hours, and that a report from the eight doctors who check up on him will be released at the White House afterward.

Mercy Plane Turned Back

WARSAW, Oct. 26 (AP)—A Polish plane carrying blood plasma and medical supplies for Budapest was turned back at the Hungarian frontier tonight.

The plane returned to Warsaw.

Violence Again Flares Up In Algeria, 40 Dead

ALGIERS, Oct. 26 (AP)—Violence flared again today in Algeria with over 40 reported killed—most of them rebels against French rule.

There have been few reports of action from Algeria since the French capture Monday of five rebel leaders flying to a conference in Tunis. But yesterday, however, there were at least 15 attacks against Europeans—most of them in and around Algiers itself—with 9 killed and 15 wounded. They were preceded by rebel leaflets declaring the fight would go on.

French headquarters reported at least 33 rebels killed in actions throughout the territory, most of them in the Kabylie region east of the capital. There were scattered reports of new attacks against Frenchmen today, but full French information—none is available from the rebel side—is usually 24 hours late.

In Paris, the French Cabinet minister in charge of Tunisian and Moroccan affairs, Alain Savary, resigned. Premier Guy Mollet put off acceptance until next Wednesday's Cabinet meeting, but a spokesman for Savary said the job is now vacant so far as the minister is concerned. Savary was reported to have disapproved of the way the rebel leaders' plane was diverted to Algiers, where they were clapped into handcuffs by the French. His spokesman said this had brought a break in negotiations between France and the newly independent Tunisian and Moroccan governments.

Woman Faces Electric Chair

CROWN POINT, Ind., Oct. 26 (AP)—An all-male jury found Mrs. Opal Collins, 25, guilty today of murdering her husband and three in-laws and recommended a sentence of death in the electric chair.

If the Hammond housewife is executed, she would be the first woman to meet that fate in Indiana.

Allies Study Move To Cite Russia In UN

U.S. May Rebuke Moscow For Use Of Troops In Hungary

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The United States has started consulting Britain, France and other allies to decide whether to cite Russia before the United Nations on charges of brutal military intervention in Hungary.

The State Department, in disclosing this today, also hinted this country is considering a separate diplomatic protest to Moscow denouncing Russia for using its troops against Hungarian rebels.

At a news conference, a spokesman for the department reported a new blackout of all telephone and telegraph contact with the American Legation in the revolt-torn capital of Budapest.

Communications Off

Press officer Lincoln White said that before communications broke off about noon yesterday, Washington time, thousands of Hungarians were gathered in front of the legation appealing for diplomats to relay word of their struggle to the outside world.

White told reporters the State Department is exchanging views with friendly governments, including Britain and France, to decide the "feasibility and advisability of bringing the situation in Hungary before the United Nations."

No decisions have been made yet, he stressed, but talks are moving ahead swiftly.

Even before White spoke, Foreign Minister Christian Pineau of France said the Western Big Three may soon ask the U.N. Security Council to deal with the question of what part the Soviet Union played in the Hungarian revolt.

In response to questions at a press luncheon in Paris, Pineau disclosed the Big Three are discussing the idea of accusing the Soviet Union of employing force within another independent nation.

Made Major Error

Pineau said the Russians, who have proclaimed themselves foes of "colonialism," made a major error in using Red troops to "exterminate" workers in Budapest. He said the West should not interfere in Hungarian, Polish or Czech internal affairs, but should be ready to help create economic stability.

Officials here said that an American diplomatic protest to Moscow was being considered along with possible offers of American economic aid to relieve suffering in Hungary.

Secretary of State Dulles was reported in close touch with President Eisenhower on all developments in the Hungarian revolt. The continuing battle between rebels and Russian tank units was reported to have figured prominently in a White House meeting this morning of the National Security Council, the government's top policy making body on military and foreign matters.

The appeal to the United Nations, if decided upon, would be based on charges that Russia has kept troops in Hungary illegally to maintain its puppet Communist regime in power.

Coal Industry Needs Capital

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—A coal industry official said today that more than one billion dollars in new capital will be needed in the next five to 10 years to meet the growing demand for coal.

"Our number one target is increased efficiency and greater productivity—and we are going to make it," said George A. Lamb, manager of business surveys for the Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., Pittsburgh.

Lamb told the closing session of the 19th annual Solid Fuels Conference that expansion in the industry will not be rapid but will be by a "slow, steady growth."

He said coal production for this year will reach about 500 million tons this year, the highest since 1951.

"We can look for another 4 to 5 per cent improvement in 1957 and continued growth beyond that year," he said.

Lamb said new mines will have to be developed to meet new demands in the fuel market by the aluminum, steel and utilities industries. A rising export market also is adding to the increased demand for United States coal.

Productivity in the coal industry, he said, rose 70 per cent in the years between 1946 and 1955.

Adlai Terms Ike's Attitude On Bomb Tests "Madness"

Preserves Peace By Terror He Adds In Strong Attack At Rock Island

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Oct. 26 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson said today President Eisenhower's attitude on the hydrogen bomb is "madness," and called it a "policy of trying to preserve peace by a preponderance of terror."

If Eisenhower continues to try to develop bigger and bigger bombs, Stevenson said, and the Russians keep up:

"What does Mr. Eisenhower propose then? That we go ahead with the development of the cobalt bomb to try to gain another advantage—of force that can shake the earth's axis?"

"But this is madness—this policy of trying to preserve peace by a preponderance of terror, and what is it going to do to mankind in the process—bone cancer, deformed children, sterility."

Thus Stevenson returned to a theme he had discussed often before, but never in such strong words.

Hotly Contradicted

His view—which has been hotly contradicted by the President—is that a halt must be called in the testing of the super bombs.

Eisenhower contends that until certain safety checks can be developed, to make sure everyone lives up to the agreement, this country has no other course but to continue making and testing larger bombs.

Eisenhower also has said that the fallout of radioactive particles presents no threat to civilization. But today Stevenson said:

"Yesterday four scientists said that in certain areas of the world the radiation hazard has already passed the danger point."

Stevenson's comment on the hydrogen question was something of a bombshell itself. He had prepared a speech for his rally in the Fort Theatre here that was chiefly an attempt to link the Republican scandals in Illinois with the Eisenhower administration.

Gets Enthusiastic Applause

He had sailed along through this—with enthusiastic applause for the capacity crowd of more than 1,600—without a hint that more serious things lay ahead.

Suddenly, near the end of his prepared address, he launched into his attack on Eisenhower's stand on the H-bomb.

He said it reminded him of 10 years ago, when we felt the atom bomb gave us superiority.

"And to our surprise," he said, "The Russians caught up with us in no time."

"And they'll do it again in the hydrogen field."

"Maybe they have already," Stevenson's viewpoint.

Peace Through Faith

"I say the way to peace is not through fear and ever more horrible weapons—it is through faith and confidence and rising standards of living among the have-nots—the millions of people who tremble on the sidelines of this mad arms race in helpless terror and expanding hunger."

"Just because this administration has not been able to make any progress toward safe disarmament or even toward controlling H-bomb development does not mean that such agreements are impossible."

"No matter which party wins in November, another supreme effort must be undertaken, and if that fails, then another and another—for leaders must lead, else the people perish."

Teller Urges Small Battle Squads Armed By A-Guns

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—Dr. Edward Teller, who helped develop the first A-bombs, urged the Army today to create small, mobile battle groups equipped with nuclear weapons. They could liberate "oppressed people without blowing them to bits," he said.

Teller said the thinking of many people has been "paralyzed" by the mistaken conclusion that "nuclear bombs as such are weapons of terror and cannot be used except to create wholesale destruction."

The Hungarian-born scientist is now a professor of physics at the University of California at Berkeley and at the Atomic Energy Commission weapons laboratory at Livermore, Calif.

He made an unscheduled speech at the convention of the Assn. of the United States Army. At about the same time the White House announced Teller's appointment by President Eisenhower to the general advisory committee of the AEC.

Teller urged the Army to realize that nuclear weapons, particularly the hydrogen bomb, will make mass concentrations of soldiers and equipment a "ludicrous and obsolete procedure."

An army composed of such units, Teller said, would operate "more like the knife of a surgeon and less like the axe of an executioner."

Rebels Gain Ground, Riot Near Austria

Doctor Claims Russia Troops Massacred 75 Farmers, Children

VIENNA, Saturday, Oct. 27 (AP)—Budapest's anti-Red revolution blazed across western Hungary today to the borders of Austria on a widening panorama of reeking war and death.

Anti-Red Hungarians also were reported gaining against Soviet-led armed force in south Hungary.

Casualties mounted into many uncounted thousands.

The rebels fought through a fourth straight night, rejecting the Hungarian Communist regime's latest ultimatum to down arms or die.

Some Russian tanks were reported to have joined the rebel side in Budapest.

Rebels Gain Ground

The situation outside flaming Budapest was roughly this:

1. Rebels were reported to have wrested much of western Hungary from combined Soviet and Red Hungarian forces.

2. Travelers streaming into Austria from Hungary said rebels were holding much of south Hungary with the added help of miners and striking workers.

Travelers said they were told the rebels had seized the Russian headquarters city of Miskolc near Czechoslovak border.

A Hungarian doctor appearing dramatically at the frontier said Russian soldiers massacred 75 peasant demonstrators only 10 miles from the Austrian border.

Other eyewitnesses said Soviet soldiers shot down rebellious farmers, their wives and children in farms and villages.

Austria sent troops to the frontier, promised asylum for refugees and warned it would resist any Red attempt to pursue fugitives across the border.

Heavy Fighting Reported

Witnesses said the rebels appeared to be gaining despite the armed might of Soviet and Hungarian tanks, artillery and jet planes.

Heavy fighting still was reported in Budapest, where the revolt began Tuesday. The Hungarian government warned that if more than three persons assembled anywhere in Budapest they would be shot.

A government broadcast said there were many dead and "thousands of wounded" but gave no figures. Reports reaching the Austrian border said 10,000 had been killed or wounded, but obviously this was a guess.

"Freedom" radio stations began broadcasting rebel messages from Pecs, near the Yugoslav frontier, and from Miskolc, near the Czech border, indicating the rebels were gaining in the south and north-east too.

Estimates 5,000 Dead

Franz Groh, Austrian businessman returning from Budapest tonight, estimated the dead in Budapest alone at 4,000 to 5,000.

"Soviet tanks are there, shooting into the West Railroad Station in downtown Budapest," he said.

"The whole town echoes with artillery fire. Planes are roaring over the capital. One does not know whether they are Communist or rebel because one also hears anti-aircraft fire."

The government of Premier Imre Nagy ordered all-out assault to crush the revolt early today, then changed the tune of its Budapest radio broadcasts and offered this six-point peace proposal:

1. Formation of a new popular front government, to be headed by Nagy and to include non-Communists, which would attempt to "correct all mistakes of the past, fulfill justified demands and bring about socialistic welfare."

2. Negotiation with Moscow, as soon as the fighting ends, on a basis of equality and with the object of getting Soviet troops to go home.

3. Formation of workers' councils to work out an increase of wages.

4. An amnesty for all rebels who lay down their arms by 10 p.m. This was at least the third deadline set for cessation of rebel resistance. Two were set Thursday.

5. Workers and loyal citizens to join in mercilessly liquidating anyone who continues fighting after the deadline.

6. The program of the government to aim at a sound national economy based on "socialistic democratic principles."

The good thing about this is that Dan and Betty and those other youngsters too are here, in Church, because they want to be!

No one made them come. No one told them that they had to. No one threatened punishment if they didn't.

Though outside it is a bright sunny day and the woods and fields and streams beckon, they are here, in God's house, at prayer.

They'd like the country and the world to know that despite all this alarming "juvenile delinquency" there are good teen-agers too.

There are teen-agers who have been instructed in the Christian way of life, and who have discovered what the Church can mean to them.

LET'S GO TO CHURCH TOGETHER

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Wide Interest Is Shown In College Campus Day

FROSTBURG — The annual Campus Day was held Thursday at State Teachers College with representatives present from Allegany, Garrett, and Washington county schools. The theme of the day's affair was "Teaching is a Priceless Privilege."

The day's program began with registration in Compton Hall lobby from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m. Serving on this committee were the following college students: Mary Frances DeLuca, Betsy Bampton, Shirley Grove, David Cook, and Michael McLuckie.

The visiting students were made welcome in the auditorium by the following committee: Joyce Warwick, Joyce Tharpe, June Mowbray, Thomas Buser, and Sterling Edwards.

Following the registration, greetings were extended to the visiting students by Davison Ayers, chairman of the Campus Day committee.

Tours were then scheduled, with students being escorted about the campus in small groups by college students, followed by lunch in the dining hall. While the tours were being conducted, guidance counselors who accompanied the students participated in a workshop in Lowndes Hall, under the direction of Ivan C. Diehl, dean of instruction.

The afternoon's activity centered in Compton Hall auditorium with a program given by the Marigal Singers under direction of Charles I. Sager and the College Dance Band, under the direction of Dr. Ward C. Cole. This was followed by a panel discussion on the theme of the day. The following participated: Ralph Weimer, guidance counselor, Fort Hill High School, Cumberland; Lois Sweitzer, president of the Beall High School FTA; Walter McKenzie, student of Valley High School, Lonaconing; Lowell Sowers, State Teachers College faculty, and chairman of the public

Sounds Little Like Halloween Prank; But It Wasn't

LONA CONING — The office staff and principal of Valley High School were disturbed one day this week by a scratching and clawing sound which seemed to come from a hollow paneled wall.

Thinking a mouse or a bird had somehow been trapped within the office wall, there was quite an investigation.

Finally it was discovered that the persistent but intermittent sounds seemed to come from the row of pigeon-holed mail boxes, where the teachers' mail is placed.

Checking the boxes, it was found that a small package in the box of Miss Catherine Manley, science teacher seemed to be the secret of the noise. Examination showed that when the mail was distributed the package had been placed in the mail box along with other mail.

On the label of the box was the message "Live Lizard". The package was dispatched immediately "special delivery" to Class Room No. 209, where it was discovered a "live horned lizard" had been ordered by a science student from Topeka, Kansas.

The scratching and clawing sounds are no longer heard in the office.

LaVale Firemen Extinguish Fire On Piney Mt.

Prompt work by LaVale Volunteer Fire Company firemen under the direction of Chief Bruce Long, averted possible serious forest fires Thursday afternoon on Piney Mountain across the highway from the Super 40 Drive-In-Theatre on Route 40.

The blaze started near the highway in scrub trees and foliage, and was fanned by a strong wind. Firemen were called about 4:21 p. m.

Three trucks, two pumps and an equipment truck with 12 volunteers answered the alarm. With the aid of several forestry department employees, Potomac Valley Television Company workers and some Boy Scouts in the area, the firemen brought the fire quickly under control.

The blaze, which began in dried leaves on the spur at Piney Mountain on the east side of the highway about five miles from Cumberland, was extinguished about 6 p. m. despite the wind gusts which sometimes hampered the work of the fire fighters. Firemen used forestry water tanks and one bucket line in fighting the flames.

Brook Bodkin, senior forest warden of this district, along with Allan Hott, forest warden of Allegany Grove, and other forestry department workers, aided in extinguishing the fire, which at first "looked bad," according to Bodkin.

The warden said later about one-quarter of an acre of ground was burned in an area that had been burned about a year ago. Damage was slight.

Hyndman Church To Hold Baptismal

HYNDMAN — A special baptismal service will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at Central Christian Church here.

Special music is also planned for the service.

Estes Hits Maryland Today

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26 (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver rides into Maryland tomorrow for a whirlwind motor trip, the first of a procession of top party bigwigs making a strong effort to swing the state to the Democrats on Nov. 6.

The Vice Presidential nominee is scheduled to land at the Martinsburg, W. Va., airport at 10:30 a. m. and immediately head for a meeting at the Maryland line with former Gov. Lane at Williamsport.

Then, in rapid-fire order, comes this schedule:

Short speech at Hagerstown; another speech and assorted other functions at Frederick; speech at a bull roast at the State Fairgrounds at Timonium; press conference in Baltimore; speech at Glen Burnie; reception back in Baltimore.

Kefauver's tour will be followed Sunday with an appearance by Sen. Kennedy of Massachusetts at a Democratic rally here Sunday night, a speech by Rep. Rayburn at a $100-a-plate fund-raising dinner here Monday night, and an appearance by Presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson at a noon rally at Baltimore's War Memorial Plaza on Tuesday.

The flood of Democratic talent apparently is a result of soulful pleas by Maryland's party faithful after two appearances by Vice President Nixon and jaunts into the state by other top Republicans.

Man Sentenced To Prison On Motor Charge

A Bloomington area man was sentenced to a year in the House of Correction at a hearing yesterday before Trial Magistrate Donald W. Mason on a charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.

The man, William Warren Martin, 35, of Backbone Mountain, was arrested by Tfc. Milton G. Hart as being the second person involved in the theft of two vehicles earlier this month from a Moran Trucking Company lot near Westport.

Eward R. Wilson, 19, of Ohio a former resident of Westport, was sentenced to two one-year terms in the House of Correction at a hearing October 9 before Magistrate Mason.

Testimony at yesterday's hearings disclosed Wilson and Martin had been drinking on the evening the vehicles were taken from the Moran Company lot. The two drove a loaded tractor-trailer from the lot and ditched it along the McCoolle Road and it went out of control.

It was disclosed that Wilson did not accompany Martin back to the Moran firm's lot, from where Martin drove a tractor part of a rig. This also was ditched along the McCoolle Road and Martin was arrested shortly afterwards.

Assistant State's Attorney James S. Getty prosecuted the case. It was pointed out that Wilson had a long record of previous convictions on a multitude of charges.

'Ham' Operator Tells Brother Of Their Father's Death

The sons of a Mt. Savage man struck and killed by an automobile last Saturday night talked to each other via short wave radio between Mt. Savage and Fussen, Germany.

One of the sons of Warren Lee Hice, who was fatally injured, is an amateur radio operator and he was able to make contact the other night with his brother, Stc. Arthur Hice, at a non-commissioned officer's club at Fussen.

A radio operator at the club received Charles A. Hice's message and was able to get Stc. Hice to the radio room. The soldier was told by his brother of the details concerning their father's death.

Charles Hice, a machinist at the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, has been a "ham" radio operator for a number of years and took that method to contact his brother. Stc. Hice has been in the Army for 15 years and is serving his third tour of duty in Germany. He is an instructor in auto mechanics.

Chemists Seek New College

Superintendent of Schools Ralph R. Webster said yesterday that he is wholeheartedly in support of the efforts of the Western Maryland Section of the American Chemical Society in its proposal to bring a fully-accredited four-year college to this section of the state.

Dr. Charles Orlick, chairman of the section, and Albert M. Jacobs, chairman of the section's education and manpower committee, conferred with Webster yesterday morning. Personal visits now will be made to service clubs, civic groups and other individuals.

Jacobs pointed out that a 1955 state survey revealed that 725 students from Allegany, Washington and Garrett counties attend Maryland schools of higher learning. Some 129 were attending Frostburg State Teachers College as junior college students.

The proposed college would grant bachelors' degrees in arts and social studies fields, as well as degrees in chemistry, physics and mathematics.

The Chest Campaign Is An Inspiration

All manner of congratulations are due Cumberland Community Chest campaign workers for their unprecedented success in raising $152,428.15 in the just-ended drive for funds.

But while the workers are accepting congratulations the fact should not be lost sight of that congratulations also are due the people of this community who contributed to this campaign to make it a success and to share their part of the responsibility in the operation of the member agencies.

What offers great hope to the community is the suggestion made at the victory dinner that Cumberland should have a really united fund drive—one fund campaign for all groups.

That was the purpose of the Community Chest when it was organized years ago, but since that eventful day dozens of new worthwhile organizations have been formed and they, too, exist only through money contributed by the public.

Where the purpose of the Community Chest had been to raise money for all deserving organizations with one concerted campaign, that purpose has been defeated to a great extent because of the additional campaigns waged by these other groups that are not members of the Community Chest. But they need money, too.

It goes without saying that Cumberland people are generous in their response to fund campaigns. The just-completed Community Chest drive shows how much money can be raised in one campaign and we have no doubt that this amount can be increased still more.

The people of Cumberland undoubtedly are tired of being solicited by one group after another ad infinitum. It would seem that the time now is ripe to begin the mechanics of establishing a basis for a truly united fund campaign next year. The people will welcome it and, once assured they will not be dunned day after day, will be prone to increase their giving commensurate to the increased need.

If a really united fund organization is set up, however, its purposes should be re-examined from time to time to make certain that it really remains a united fund, that is, that new deserving organizations that spring up are not left out. The fund campaign situation should not be permitted to become again what it is today.

This is not meant to detract from the splendid achievement of the Community Chest in raising so much money this year. Rather, that achievement should be the inspiration for an enlarged, stronger, truly united organization.

The Cult Of Atheism

Ira D. Cardiff wrote to the editor of the Seattle Post Intelligence and sent me a copy complaining of my support of the teaching of religion, morals and ethics in the schools. The last sentence of Cardiff's letter is worth repeating:

"I have no quarrel with the person who has created a god, a messiah, or a heaven for himself, a hell for those who disagree with him, or any other fantastic belief, but feel strongly that religious doctrines, of which there are thousands, should not be forced upon the youth of America."

To prove his point, he cites figures to show that most criminals in Sing Sing prison were, at the time of the census and may be today for all I know, of religious persuasions, while those who admit to no religion are few in number, which is not unnatural in this country where most citizens, decent or indecent, have some kind of religious affiliation, if not by conviction then by birth.

The argument proves nothing. In man's travail from the bush, he has learned more than he can do, Sun Yat-sen put it cogently when he said that it is easier to know than to do.

Children can be taught what is right and what is wrong and most will try real hard to do what they and most folks regard as right but there will be some who will be evil because of greed, lust, unfortunate companions, physical defects, and dozens of other causes.

The few faulty ones are not to be regarded as the yardstick for the human race. While man has not yet achieved perfection, it can be said that civilized society lives on standards that are higher than when each man carried a cudgel and each woman was a slave.

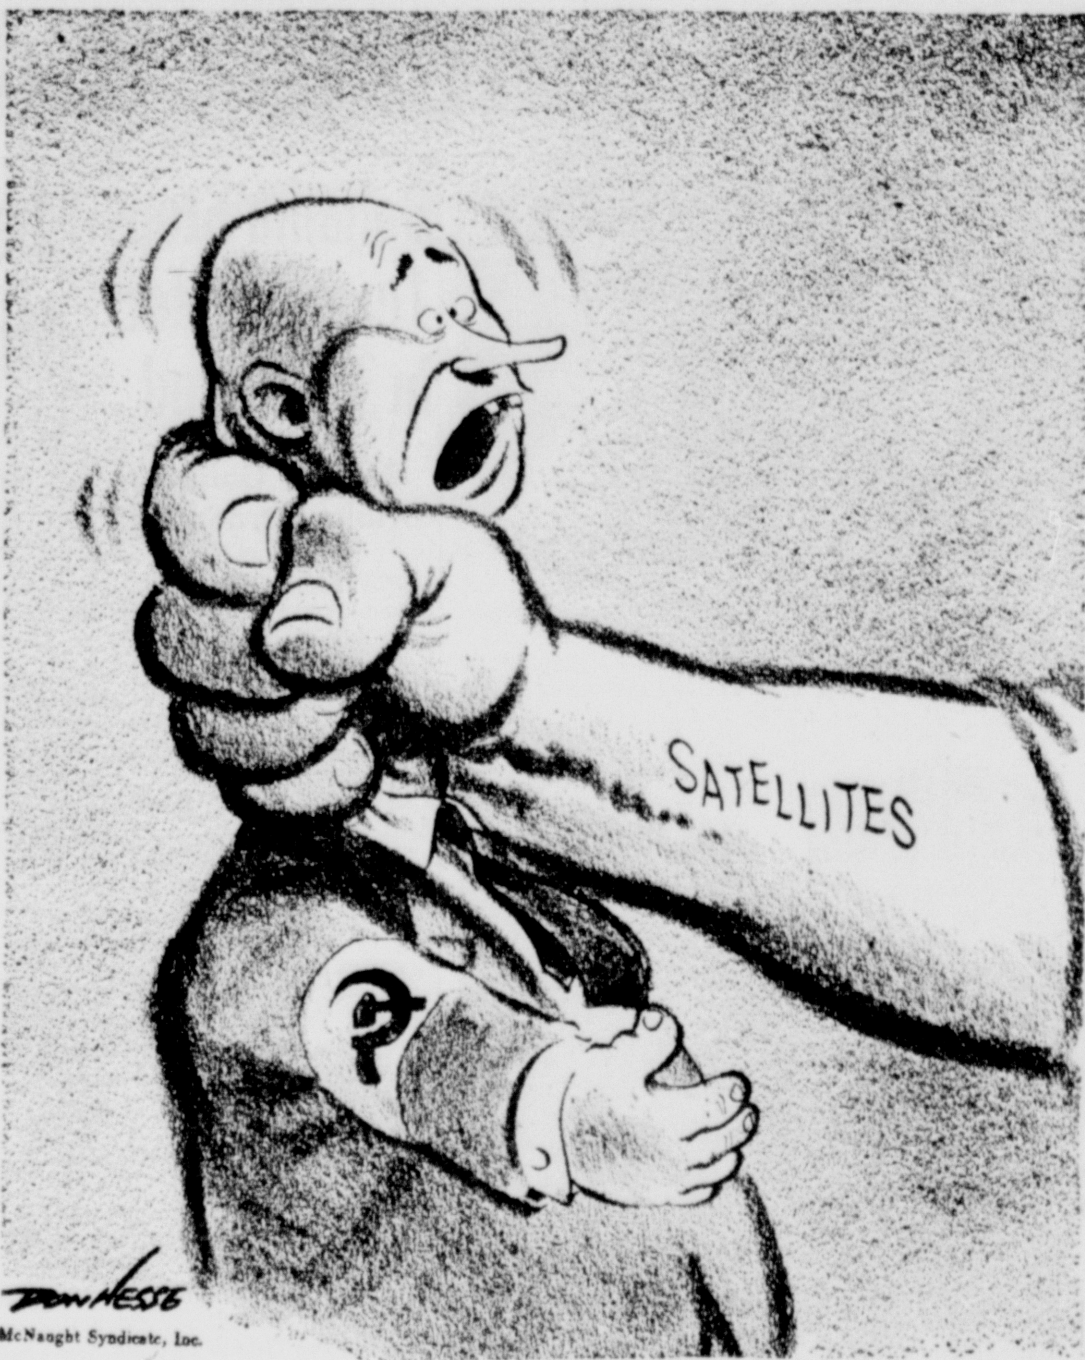

We do not murder each other over differences of opinion, as, for instance, Alexander Hamilton and Aaron Burr found it necessary to do to uphold their dignity. Hamilton was killed, to the great loss of the United States. Few men have had to undergo an ordeal by slander, similar to Richard Nixon's, but no one is being murdered because of these malignities. The right to differences of opinion is a moral advance and the very fact that in the United States, so many diverse expressions of religious belief are possible represents moral improvement.

Cardiff makes the point that during the "first 100 years of this nation's existence, it did not elect to the presidency a man who was a communicant of any church." The time set is between 1789 and 1889. So let us look: George Washington was an Episcopalian; John Adams a Unitarian; Thomas Jefferson did not belong to any church, but regarded himself as a Deist; James Madison and James Monroe were Episcopals; John Quincy Adams a Unitarian; Andrew Jackson a Presbyterian; Martin Van Buren belonged to the Dutch Reformed Church; William H. Harrison and John Tyler were Episcopals; James K. Polk a Presbyterian; Zachary Taylor an Episcopalian; Millard Fillmore a Unitarian; Franklin Pierce an Episcopalian; James Buchanan a Presbyterian; Abraham Lincoln was not a member of any church but he attended church services; Andrew Johnson and Ulysses S. Grant were Methodists, which church Rutherford B. Hayes also attended; James A. Garfield was a Disciple of Christ; Chester A. Arthur was an Episcopalian, and Grover Cleveland a Presbyterian.

I do not know what this proves, but Cardiff made a statement in his letter which, with very little effort, it is possible to show is not true.

"All I Had In Mind Was A Handshake"

Satellite Blood Bath Raises Many Questions

By Joseph and Stewart Alsop

The tragic and terrible blood bath in Hungary has now very publicly revealed the real inner weakness of the "National-Communist" movement in the Soviet Union's European satellites.

On the one hand, the Polish and Hungarian drive for freedom from Kremlin domination is a great popular movement, sustained and born along by a strong surge of popular opinion. Gomulka in Poland had the people squarely behind him because he had shown he also opposed Kremlin domination; and for this same reason, Imre Nagy in Hungary had the people behind him too, at least until he turned the tanks and aircraft on them.

Caught In Dilemma

But although Gomulka and Nagy have been dissident Communists, long out of favor and even in danger of their lives because of their nationalist tendencies, they are still Communists all the same. And the surge of popular opinion which has carried them to power is not only nationalistic. It is not only a surge of opposition to the rule of Poland and Hungary from the Kremlin in Moscow. It also tends very strongly to become an anti-Communist surge.

It is hard to judge the events in Budapest from this distance, but the American officials best qualified to form an opinion are rather unanimous that Nagy was squarely caught in the above-outlined dilemma. When he took over the Hungarian premiership the students and workers in the Budapest streets were not merely shouting for "National-Communism." They were actually shouting for no communism at all.

Thus the new government with Nagy at its head, strongly National-Communist as its make-up appears to be, was just as much threatened as the prior Hungarian government headed by Erno Gero and Andros Hegedus.

Therefore Nagy called in the troops, actually including Soviet troops, to restore order in the capital and to insure his government's authority.

The very fact that Nagy ordered this blood bath casts doubt on the future course his government will take. Will it, or will it not continue to live up to the National-Communist professions that originally won Nagy popular support? It will hardly be easy for Nagy in Hungary, after using the Red army's guns against the Hungarian people. Yet even for Gomulka in Poland, where he has thus far maintained complete mastery of the situation, the future can hardly be taken for granted.

Somewhat Insecure

The plain truth is that new Polish and Hungarian governments are altogether different, and in an altogether basic way, from the Yugoslav Communist government which they are seeking to imitate. Marshal Tito and his comrades are not recent imports, after all. They are the former leaders of their country's wartime resistance. In wartime they fought side by side with the Yugoslav masses.

This very nativeness, this local origin of their power was what made it possible for the Yugoslav Communists to defy Stalin, it also gives Tito's government a special kind of security at home which Polish and Hungarian "National-Communist" governments cannot hope to enjoy.

The new Polish and Hungarian governments are somewhat insecure, because the Polish and Hungarian Communists, whether of the nationalist or the Stalinist brand, were originally carried to power in the baggage

BRUSSELS—Breezed into this historic municipality on the luxurious Amsterdam-Paris express which train is officially known as the Etoile du Nord. Had a very comfortable trip lolling in one of those large chairs featured in the European Pullman cars. Passed through an extremely picturesque part of Holland including the beautiful garden city of Haarlem where most of the tulip bulbs come from. Noted a number of well kept farms. Even saw several windmills. However, didn't see anybody wear wooden shoes. Am informed there are sections in the Netherlands where the natives still go for that wooden footgear. Also, small towns where the females wear the native costumes. These young women wear a minimum of five petticoats. Some wear 10. Ten petticoats and a pair of wooden shoes is a lot of weight for a girl to carry. Especially when dancing.

GAY PLACE

Brussels has the reputation of being a very gay place. It certainly looks that way, it has a gay white way that somewhat resembles the vicinity of 42nd Street and Broadway, New York City. I has innumerable cabarets, dance halls, theaters and horse racing six times a week. This is my first visit here. I will check on the aforementioned gay atmosphere and report later.

Too Little Iodine Is Not Only Cause Of Goiter

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

The discovery, years ago, that goiter is caused by lack of iodine was followed by a marked reduction in the number of cases. This knowledge proved to be a boon to people living in mountainous regions and the Great Lakes area where the soil and water are deficient in iodine.

The Michigan Department of Health conducted a survey on 31,000 school children in 1923 and found the incidence of endemic goiter to be 47.2 per cent. A similar study in 1934 of 61,427 youngsters showed the rate had dropped to 9.2 per cent. In 1951 a third survey revealed only 1.4 per cent with goiter.

This was accomplished even though the use of iodized salt is not compulsory in Michigan. Many individuals use iodized salt, and in addition our foods now come from all over the country. As a result, even inhabiitants of the goiter belt obtain their quota of this mineral.

But too little iodine is not the only cause of goiter. A shortage of proteins, fats, and vitamins also play a role. This may explain why there was an increase in goiter among infants and children living in countries where malnutrition was rife after World Wars I and II.

Other factors enter the picture. The diet may be loaded with iodine, for example, but it will be wasted unless the thyroid takes up the mineral. There are anti-thyroid enzymes and substances like the thiocyanates and nitriles. Certain plans are in this category, including cabbage, yellow turnips, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, and the seeds of most Brassicae (mustard) plants.

But unusual eating habits are required to get a goiter from these vegetables. Persons who have developed trouble along this line have eaten the raw vegetables weekly for many months.

Simple goiter may become quite large without attracting attention. Occasionally the gland grows to an enormous size before the victim does anything about it, and then only for cosmetic reasons.

The situation is different when the enlarged gland presses upon the windpipe, esophagus, or certain nerves of the neck. The individual seeks help because he is having trouble talking, swallowing, or breathing. Goiter may respond to the use of iodine or thyroid extract but the majority require surgery.

He then tootled off, check in pocket and (presto!) the fireplace began to draw magnificently.

He then tootled off, check in pocket and in the back of his car the pane of glass he had laid across the top of the new chimney when he'd installed it.

By Bennett Cerf

Charles Morton tells about a stonemason who rebuilt a chimney for a wealthy Boston lady. He did so good a job that she hired him to remake another flue in her mansion.

The dowager, however, didn't pay her bills—especially those submitted by what she considered "unimporant little tradespeople." In spite of this the mason responded when she built a new wing on her house. He installed a new fireplace and chimney.

Shortly afterwards, he received a frantic call. The new flue wouldn't draw, the fine new room was full of smoke. He rushed over, but this time announced firmly that he wouldn't lift a finger till his bill had been paid in full. The rich lady, coughing with vexation and smoke, wrote a check, the mason climbed to the

Ike Apparently Had Mild Relapse On Western Trip, Pearson Says

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—It will be vigorously denied, but President Eisenhower apparently suffered a mild relapse on his western campaign trip. This is one reason for the head-to-toe examination this weekend. Such an examination had been promised, but it was made all the more necessary by the incidents of his West Coast trip.

Whether it was campaign exhaustion or something more serious, it hit Ike while he was driving back to the airport from Minneapolis. He suddenly turned to the others in the car and announced: "I can't take any more of this. Let's get out of here."

The presidential limousine took off from the motorcade and sped to the airport, followed by a Secret Service car. Ike was hustled into his plane. The Columbine, without bidding goodbye to the local dignitaries. Later it was explained that the Secret Service had pulled his car out of line because it was too close to other cars. This, however, was not the real reason.

At the next stop, Seattle, Ike clenched his teeth and waved to the crowd along the route to the hotel. Then he closed himself in his suite for 24 hours, seeing no one but his family and physician.

Mamie Worried

Aides explained he was "working on a speech." But he never goes this without consulting his speech writers, who were barred along with the rest of his staff from seeing him.

Later, after his Portland, Ore., speech, Ike was overheard reassuring Mamie: "I'm all right. I'm all right. I feel fine."

Mamie had rushed up to him when he finished speaking, obviously worried. And Ike's reassurance was broadcast over TV. The late viewers who listened in to the Portland speech heard it and were puzzled over the reason for Mrs. Eisenhower's concern.

Returning to Washington, the President canceled his press conference and vetoed a long-scheduled address to the United Nations, on atoms for peace, which would have given him an opportunity to expound on his favorite campaign theme, peace, and canceled plans for a motorcade through Manhattan.

Kremlin Struggle

The recent historic events in Poland—perhaps the most historic since the founding of the Soviet Union in November 1917—probably had an important beginning at the recent Yalta conference between Marshal Tito and party boss Nikita Khrushchev.

Naturally, it has been difficult for American diplomats to find out exactly what happened at this session. However, here is how they have pieced the story together and the manner in which it led to the revolt in Poland.

For some time Khrushchev has had trouble with the Stalin wing of the Communist party, headed by ex-Foreign Minister Molotov, which opposed Khrushchev's soft policy toward such party rebels as Tito. Khrushchev had ordered military barriers and fortifications removed between Austria and Hungary, fortifications that had taken years to erect; so their destruction meant that armed rule in the satellites was definitely on the way out.

The satellites knew this and began to get restless. Molotov, sensing their restlessness, bucked at Khrushchev's soft policy.

This resulted in a series of inner Kremlin debates in which Khrushchev battled it out with Molotov and the Stalinists. He won. How complete his victory was cannot be ascertained, but in the view of some observers it was so complete that plans were started to try the dead Stalin for treason.

Certainly it was complete enough for Khrushchev to fly to the Adriatic isle of Brioni to assure Tito that Soviet sniping against him would be a thing of the past.

Tito Won

Tito had complained that although Moscow had opened its arms and welcomed him like a long-lost brother a few months before, the Stalinists were still critical and satellite leaders were still undercutting. He had experienced friction with Hungary, where Communist leaders had fired insults.

At this point, according to American diplomatic information, Khrushchev not only promised there would be no more sniping, but in a spirit of bragadocio, invited Tito to fly to Yalta to meet Soviet leaders and be convinced for himself. Tito took him up. With only his wife and secretary and no armed guard, Tito flew to Yalta—even though he hated to fly.

The story from that point on becomes somewhat cloudy. It is known that various Soviet leaders were called in to confer with Tito. Apparently he was given the assurances he was promised.

For when he came back to Belgrade he immediately began acting as if he had won everything he wanted at Yalta.

Whatever he said, word of Tito's triumph spread like wildfire through the satellites. He had got away with thumbing his nose at Moscow, so other satellites—notably Poland and Hungary—decided that what Tito had done they could do too.

The Robot

By Brother Barnabas

It has been said that a woman doesn't need to know what you say in order to reply. That depends upon the woman. It may be true of some women, but more likely it's a wheeze. At any rate there are other devices that can do the trick and save the woman that aspersions.

The other night I called my friend to inquire sympathetically about his health. A robot reeled off: "Dr. X is just home from the hospital and will not be in his office for several days."

You are in a quandary about how to vote, there are so many conflicting speeches and counter-accusations. You call your congressman for enlightenment and all you get is: "Congressman X is out campaigning. Expects to be in his office or out of it on November 6. Call the day after to see what happened."

Pack Up Your Troubles

Premier Bulganin called from Moscow to apologize to President Eisenhower for the faux pas he had pulled about the H-bomb tests.

A little pixy in Washington triggered back: "The President has gone to the hospital to have his chances for a second term examined. All bums suffering from 'fallouts' with the administration will be handled by V. P. Nixon" 'til the candidate returns.

All one can do in such cases as these is "Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag, and smile, smile, smile."

Telephony has its robots, how about telescropy? There too the answers we get leave us cold.

"Twinkle, twinkle, little star.

How I wonder what you are;

Up above the world so high,

Like a diamond in the sky."

Ever since the days of Tycho Brahe the race has been trying to answer that child's question. The gist of our findings so far is that the universe is BIG and spatially man is as small as an atom; yet that little pinhead has more intelligence than all the stars and atoms combined if he would only use the brains he has.

The boys who scour the heavens with their telescopes go to the end of the Milky Way with its 10,000 million stars 'til they come to the jumping-off place and there they find the sign "Verboten."

Our Earth is a teeny-weeny speck lost somewhere in that galaxy and if we wanted to call up one of our celestial neighbors to ask about the weather up there, it would take 10,000 years to get the call through, provided the line wasn't busy. Our local service is improving.

A Good Question

This all seems hanky-panky to the average man. Let's come down out of the clouds to munddane affairs; when do we eat, or do we?

A workman asked the boss for a raise. Said he: "I've been with you 17 years and have never had my salary increased, and have done honest work." The boss replied: "I am surprised that you have been here so long and have not learned how to plug for a raise. Yours will be pie in the sky."

A Methodist preacher was held up one dark night on his way home with the collections from the churches. "You wouldn't take the Lord's money, would you?" said he to the robber. "Here's a bloke who says he's a Methodist with the Lord's money for the circuit steward," yelled out the conspirator to the chief of the gang, "what will we do?"

"Let 'im go, it's all the same, I'm a Methodist myself."

Besides the robots of telephony and telescropy we find riddles, paradoxes, confusions in the supraworld, and as we sigh for their solution there is no answer but a sigh.

Was I there, ma, when I was born? Why was I born? Where was Moses buried? If I jump into the Suez Canal what do I get? Why doesn't God kill the devil?

One wise man said if he could ask but one question of the Sphinx it would be, "Is the universe friendly?" If it is, and I think it is, we can wait for the unraveling of the mystery.

When the night is darkest the stars shine brightest. An ancient prophet went forth on a starry night and propounded the greatest puzzle of the universe. "What is man that thou art mindful of him, and the son of man that thou dost care for him?" (Psalms 8:4).

Stars Winked Back

The Stars just winked back. Then an Interpreter spoke for them: "The heavens are telling the glory of God; and the firmament proclaims His handiwork."

For generations man has been trying to decide whether he is merely a high-grade simian or a son of God.

An inspired robot answers: "Thou hast made him little less than God, and dost crown him with glory and honor" (Psalms 8:5).

As high as man has risen potentially, so low can he sink dynamically. The descent to Avernum is easy, but it is paved with good intentions.

A distinguished astronomer had several young Western women in his observatory, and after answering a running fire of questions and congratulating himself upon the outcome, one of the younger members interjected: "But as it has never been proved that stars are inhabited, how do the astronomers ever find out their names?"

I pass that on to you, gentle reader, says

ROMNEY, W. Va., Oct. 26 — West Virginia School for the Deaf extended its winning streak to five games by rallying in the final period today to defeat Ridgeley High School by the score of 13-7 in a Potomac Valley Conference game.

Trailing 7-0, entering the final period, Coach Donald Bullock's Lions scored two touchdowns and extra point to pull the game out of the fire in the last period.

Larry Jones smashed over from the three and Charley Buemi kicked the point to tie the score at 7-7 early in the last quarter. A pass play covering 30 yards with Johnny Popovich as the thrower and Buemi, the receiver, sent over the winning touchdown.

A 25-yard pass from Teter to Scott accounted for the Blackhawk's touchdown in the third period. Earnest ran the extra point. The score was set up when Ridgeley recovered a Lions' fumble on the West Virginia 25. The Lions' initial touchdown was set up when Buemi intercepted a pass and returned 23 yards. Popovich passed to Smith who carried the ball 3 yards to the 5. Jones scored on the second play. A 25-yard aerial from Popovich to Trader paved the way to the winning touchdown.

Ridgeley threatened late in the game but the rally died when Gene Smith knocked down a pass in the end zone with 2½ minutes remaining.

The win gave the Lions an overall record of 5-1 and a P.V.C. mark of 4-1. Ridgeley is 4-4 for the season and 3-1 in the conference lineups.

MOOREFIELD, W. Va., Oct. 26—Moorefield High School packed its scoring punch into the first two periods today and downed the Berkeley Springs High School Indians by the score of 19-0.

The Yellowjackets of Coach Johnny Paugh scored the first time they got their hands on the ball when Jim Vetter took Gale Smith's punt on his own 18 and raced 82 yards to paydirt.

Early in the second period, Vetter broke loose over right guard, reversed his field and galloped 38 yards for a touchdown to climax a 60-yard drive. Paugh scored the extra point from placement.

Moorefield marched 72 yards to its third score later in the second quarter. A 43-yard run by Bobby Sherman set up the score and he then carried the ball for one yard through center. Paugh attempted to run for the extra point following a bad pass from center but he failed to make it.

A 21-yard pass play by Smith to Burkhardt carried Berkeley to Moorefield's 19 in the final quarter but the drive was halted when Billy Keller intercepted an aerial near the goal line.

The game was the final of the season at home for Moorefield which closes its schedule next week at Harpers Ferry. The Jackets now have an overall record of 6-1-1. Berkeley Springs has won four and lost three. Lineups:

Buskey To Florida Fairgo Grows Wheat
Hahn Not Available Don't Need Sugar

By C. V. BURNS

RICHARD "Junie" Buskey, who has served as assistant golf professional at the Cumberland Country Club for the past five years, has been appointed to a similar post at the Palm Beach Golf Club in Florida for the winter season and will head south in December to take over his new duties.

The former Marine, who resides on the Bedford Road, is taking over the same job in Florida that was formerly held by Carroll Boggs, professional and manager here. Boggs last served the Palm Beach Club two years ago. He had been winter pro in the Sunshine State for eight years.

Buskey will return to the Cumberland Country Club on April 1.

BILL HAHN's illness has resulted in canceling of all his basketball officiating assignments for the 1956-57 season and that news comes as a severe blow to many colleges and high schools in this area.

Coaches have received cards from Hahn stating that he will not be available during the coming season.

Hahn always has been recognized as a top official, in fact, one of the most competent in the business, and his absence on the court in the big games certainly will be felt.

HARRY J. BARTON, general manager of the Cumberland Fair Association, reports that wheat has been planted at the Fairgo race track for the second straight year and will be turned under in the spring.

The growing of wheat prevents soil erosion during the winter months, supplies organic matter and anchors the soil and gives the track a nice soft cushion for racing.

The Pinto dairyman saw his Yankees win at the recent World Series and he returned home a happy man in spite of a bad cold he caught in the canyons of New York.

H. J. has been a Yankee fan from way back and Yankee Stadium is his favorite ball park. Barton and other officials of the local fair association are planning to attend the Maryland Racing Writers Association dinner and ball to be held in Baltimore on Thanksgiving Day. Tickets are $12 each.

MT. ST. JOE scrambled the football dope in the Maryland Scholastic League the past week-end by knocking off previously unbeaten City College, 7-6, after City was rejoicing over a 6-0 triumph over Patterson Park's Clippers.

The Gaels were three-beaten before they hung it on City College.

Gene Roman said Sugar Ray was available for a bout in Cumberland but the proposal fell up on deaf ears. Gene stated that for the past five years George Robinson, manager of years, has been willing to use a champ against a "good" boy. There are very few "good" boxers left, judging from some of the jokers we've seen on television.

Robinson, like most champs, would pick his own opponent for a tuneup affair in a place this size, the match would be a waltz or would be over in a flash and the gullible who got hooked would yell blue murder.

Boxing's obituary was written here in 1951 when the paying patrons decided it was about time to quit playing sucker.

TO FOOTBALL FAN:

Herman Ball coached at Ridgeley High School in 1935, came to Allegany in 1946 and spent seven seasons there. William "Pete" Cather succeeded Ball at Ridgeley and Bill Hahn took over the Blackhaws in 1940. Hahn moved to Fort Hill in 1942, spent the next three years in the navy, and returned to coach the Sentinels in 1946.

Here are the coaches who served at the three schools over the past 30 years:

Four times the Crimson Tide went to the Rose Bowl and emerged the winner on three occasions.

How times have changed. Alabama has lost 20 consecutive games and hasn't won a ball game in three years.

PETERSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 26 — Petersburg High School's Vikings registered their fourth straight victory and took over the runner-up position in the Potomac Valley Conference here today with a 6-1 record by defeating the Romney High School Panthers by the score of 13-6.

Coach "Honey" Crites' Vikings sewed up the game early by scoring touchdowns in the first and second period to grab a 13-0 advantage at intermission.

Petersburg drove 70 yards for the initial score with John Frye carrying the ball for the final five yards. Dick Huffman booted the point. In the second period a pass play engineered by Dick Huffman and Eddie Van Meter covered 60 yards and produced the Vikings' second td. Huffman's kick for the point sailed wide of the uprights.

Romney scored in the third period after failing to move the ball inside the one-foot line in three plays. On the fourth try, Ayers scooted over for the six-point.

Bahama Stops Tex Gonzalez In 3rd Round

Referee Goldstein Halts Garden Bout

NEW YORK, Oct. 26 (AP)—Yama Bahama, a sharp shooting lad from Bimini in the Bahama Islands, stopped Tony (Tex) Gonzalez of East Orange, N.J., on a technical professional golf when he of the third round tonight at Madison Square Garden.

Bahama weighed 153½, Gonzalez 159 pounds.

The end came suddenly after two slow rounds in which Bahama, whose real name is William Butler, concentrated on setting up Gonzalez with his fine jab.

A smashing right to the jaw dropped Tex early in the third. He got up slowly and just beat the count as he wobbled away from the referee toward a neutral corner.

Chasing him without a letup, Bahama slammed both hands at the dazed Gonzalez. A final attack sent Tex sprawling on the ring apron, draped over the bottom rope. Referee Ruby Goldstein wisely halted matters and awarded the TKO to Bahama, the 2 to 1 favorite.

Judge Jack Gamboli gave the first two rounds to Bahama. Judge Jack Gordon had it 1-1 and Referee Goldstein scored the first round for Bahama and the second even. The AP gave both rounds to Bahama. Bahama, a former fishing guide in the islands, had won 23 straight until he was upset by Pat Lowry at Saginaw, Mich., Aug. 9. He hadn't fought since. This was his 14th knockout, bringing his record to 41-5-2 for 48 starts.

Gonzalez had been stopped only once in 29 previous fights.

Ted Kroll's Par-Busting 68 Highlights CCC Exhibition

Puts On Great Show In Rain; Teams With Max Elbin, Wins 2-1

Ted Kroll, winner of the "World" golf championship and the $50,000 first prize at Tam O Shanter this year, gave a marvelous demonstration of top-flight professional golf when he teamed with Max Elbin, professional at the Burning Tree Club, Bethesda, Md., to defeat Carroll Boggs, pro, and Charles S. "Bill" Catherman, Jr., in an exhibition match yesterday at the local club, 2 and 1.

The professional from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., whose tour of exhibitions is being sponsored by the George S. May Company, of Chicago, which stages the rich "World" pro tourney annually, collected five birdies and only one bogey and shot the other 12 holes in par in his dazzling performance of putting and shot-making.

Ted birdied the third, fourth, eighth, eleventh and fifteenth holes, and his only bogey came on the new No. 13 par four hole. After hitting his best drive of the day on the 13th, straight out the fairway, Kroll lost his footing on the second shot on an eight iron pitch to the green. His third shot slid by the cup and missed coming back. He had five one-putt greens on the first six holes and he was not in the rough on any one shot.

What made his performance the more remarkable was that it was his first test of the local course and his par-busting performance was achieved on a miserable day, marked by drizzling rain throughout the afternoon.

150 Brave Elements
A gathering of approximately 150 golf enthusiasts braved the elements along with the four-somes during the interesting 18-hole exhibition.

Kroll and Elbin were two up for the first nine but they were held on even terms on the second nine by Boggs and Catherman.

Preceding the exhibition Kroll conducted a golf clinic and stressed the three basic factors for better golf—the grip, the stance and the swing. Members of the local club discussed their problems with the champion and he immediately demonstrated ways of solving them.

Chamber Honors Kroll
Eighty-five persons attended the "Meet Ted Kroll" dinner held last night at the Cumberland Country Club, at which time the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the program, presented Kroll with a chinaware plate of historic scenes of Cumberland as a mark of appreciation for his fine performance here.

Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Max Elbin, and Arthur Witzleben, representative of the George S. May Company, who is accompanying Kroll on his tour.

Tributes were paid to Mrs. G. William Bibby, of this city, who went to the semi-finals in the recent Middle Atlantic Tournament; Mrs. Albert Eskin, president of the C. C. C. Ladies' Golf Association; Clifton Van Roby, president of the Meg's golf association.

19 Slated To Start $300,000 Garden State Stakes

Bold Ruler Given No. 1 Rail Spot

Winner Will Get $180,565; Hartack To Ride Barbizon

By JOHN CHANDLER

CAMDEN, N.J., Oct. 26 (AP) — Nineteen names were dropped into the entry box today at $1,000 apiece for the $300,000-plus Garden State Stakes, a modern version of the goldrush, to be staged tomorrow at Garden State Park.

Bold Ruler, speedy dark bay beauty owned by the Wheatley stable of Mrs. Henry Carnegie Phipps, is the favorite in the mile and one sixteenth cavalry charge for 2-year-olds.

Bold Ruler No. 1

Lady Luck smiled on Bold Ruler in the world's richest horse race, for in the draw for post positions the son of Nasrullah got the No. 1 rail spot. This brought an immediate drop in odds from 2 to 1 to 5 to the Belmont futurity winner.

With 19 going to the post, and paying an additional $1,000 to start the race, the Garden State purse will reach a record $319,210. The gross value to the winner with no deductions for nominating or starting fees will be $180,565.

Sectional champions from coast to coast are in the star studded lineup, and the expected crowd of some 40,000 may see next year's Kentucky Derby hero in action. The race will be televised (CBS) with radio (NBC) monitor and post time is 4:05 p.m. (EST).

Three 2-Horse Entries

There are three two-horse entries in the glitter gallop, the Calumet Farm's Barbizon and Iron Liege, the Mrs. A. L. Rice pair of Buddy and Take Note, and Nashville and Blue Spruce, from the Langollen Farm of Liz Whitney Lunn.

Others entered were George D. Widener's Amarullah, the Bohemia stable's Ambehaving, Rex C. Ellsworth's California Kid, Mrs. Adele L. Rand's Clem, Clifford Lussky's Federal Hill, Mrs. Arvilla O'Toole's Finlandia, Fred J. Nally's Melson, C. V. Whitney's Miquet, Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords' Bakht, Mrs. W. W. Kratz's Price Khaled, Pab Widener's Tranquil, and the Puckey Farm's Jaunty John.

The principal rival of Bold Ruler appears to be Barbizon, although the Calumet colt and his stablemate had bad luck in the draw. Barbizon got post No. 15, while Iron Liege drew 14. Miquet is way out in leftfield, Post 19.

Atkinson Substitute

Ted Atkinson rides Bold Ruler, subbing for the grounded Eddie Arcaro, while Willie Hartack has Barbizon, whose odds along with Iron Liege shifted from 9-2 to 5-1.

Keeping Up With Hollywood

by Louella Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25 (INS) — He's right here in Hollywood. A week ago I told you that a concentrated effort was being made to get Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn to star in "Desk Set." Wednesday, Spence and Katie put their names on the dotted line and Buddy Adler's determination was rewarded.

Walter Lang, who directed 20th Century-Fox' "The King and I," returned from New York yesterday to roll up his sleeves and get busy on the William Marchant play.

Buddy told me that Phoebe and Henry Ephron's script has been tailored for Spence and Katie, just as the stage play had been written to suit Shirley Booth's personality.

The box office business "Giant," "War and Peace," "Around the World in 80 Days," and all the other big spectacles are doing, has inspired MGM to go ahead with "Ben Hur."

Sidney Franklin, who has been named director, hopes to get it rolling early next year. He again tested Cesare Danova for Ben Hur and Leslie Nielsen for the role Francis X. Bushman played in the last version of the famous Lew Wallace story.

I was talking to a friend of Glenn Ford and Eleanor Powell a few days ago and he told me they have worked out their marriage better than any other Hollywood couple who had once been threatened with marital troubles.

"They are so happy now," he said. And right is this friend.

This week they celebrate their 13th wedding anniversary, and Glenn gave Eleanor 13 gifts with a card for each year. Perhaps Glenn's great success now and Eleanor's big comeback on TV has helped their happiness, or better still, maybe the fact that both are a little older has led them to a greater understanding.

Let me say once and for all, Humphrey Bogart is NOT in a New York hospital. That is an untruth to end all untruths.

False ideas of what you wear in footwear can cause trouble—and rule out flattering fashions.

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Try Something New In A Shoe

The cartoon of a woman surrounded by half the boxes in the shoe store isn't funny to the poor salesman, nor to the woman who's looking for shoes. Yes, women do like to see all the new styles, but when matters go that far, it usually means real trouble. But it can be unnecessary trouble.

Do you always insist that the salesman show you only a certain size? This can be a big mistake and the cause of considerable difficulty. It can also be very extravagant—the reason the closet's full of shoes you seldom wear. Or it can be the reason your foot is never quite in fashion.

Sizes are not identical in all lasts, so the size that fits perfectly in one last is different from the best fitting size in another. Watch for this particularly when you choose a shoe that's quite different from what you're used to—for example, the new shoes with a somewhat Edwardian styling to complement a costume flavored by this favorite fashion.

The same thing is often true when you change heel heights, as you may well do this year when there are so many more handsome shoes with lower heels to choose from.

Even if you're devoted to the footwear by a certain manufacturer, you may take a different size in the same make. He builds his shoes on many different lasts, one of which may be perfect for you in one size, and others in other sizes.

Have you a preconceived idea that there are certain styles of shoes you can't wear? Let the salesman fit your foot in a style you thought was unwearable, no matter what the size label says, and perhaps you'll be able to change to something new and especially fashionable and flattering.

Cards of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our friends, neighbors and relatives for the kindness extended to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved husband and father, Lee Lynn Nicol, Lonaconing. We also wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent floral tributes and those who donated the use of their cars. To all who in any manner rendered assistance, we are indeed grateful.

U.S. Route 40 Is Temporarily Closed By Slide

Local Resident Escapes Injury

U. S. Route 40 along the east slope of Martins Mountain was closed to highway traffic for about 20 minutes yesterday afternoon as a result of a rock and dirt slide after a charge of dynamite was set off in the area, where relocation work is being done.

Yesterday evening Maryland State Police at LaVale barracks received a number of reports that huge boulders were falling onto the highway.

State Roads Commission personnel and workmen for the contractor on the job went to the scene last night.

The chief inspector for the SRC on that phase of the relocation work said the highway had been clear and signal lights had been placed at each end of the project to warn motorists.

Boulder Hits Car

Periodic checks of the area were being made last night, the inspector added.

Francis A. Kenney, manager of the local office of the State Department of Employment Security narrowly escaped serious injury early last night while driving along the area on a return trip from Baltimore.

Kenney said he looked up to the right of the highway and noticed a huge boulder about four feet in diameter plummeting down toward the highway.

He immediately applied his brakes and slid down the muddy highway for some distance. By the time he got his car stopped, the boulder glanced off the front of the car and continued across the road down over the embankment.

Car Is Damaged

Kenney said considerable damage was done to the front of his car, although he was able to continue his trip home. The SRC inspector said the huge boulders rolled onto the highway as an indirect result of the dynamite blast, and also because of the continued rain which fell during the day.

The boulders and dirt were loosened by the blast and worked loose after becoming saturated by the rain. He said more dirt and rock was blown up by the charge of dynamite than was expected.

He pointed out that traffic is halted during the time a charge of dynamite is set off.

Deer Park Man Charged With Manslaughter

Carroll Eston Broadwater, 19, of Deer Park, driver of an auto which went out of control early Sunday morning and plunged into Deep Creek Lake and caused the death of 16-year-old Neva Louise Bowers of the Deer Park area, has been charged with manslaughter by motor vehicle.

Broadwater and two other passengers in the car, Caroline Long, 14, of McHenry, and Linda Dunithan, 16, of Oakland, were admitted to Garrett County Memorial Hospital with injuries sustained in the crash.

Miss Bowers, who was a junior at Southern High School, drowned after the car plunged into the lake near the Deep Creek Lake Bridge, 10 miles north of Oakland.

Stephen Pagenhardt, state's attorney of Garrett County, said Broadwater was released from the hospital Thursday and was taken to Garrett County Jail.

He is expected to be given a preliminary hearing today or Monday, Pagenhardt added. The other two persons are still patients in the hospital.

Flood, Hospital Bonds Are Being Signed

Wallace G. Ullery, city clerk yesterday was busy signing the latest bond issues sold by the City of Cumberland.

They include a $150,000 flood control bond issue and a $150,000 Memorial Hospital Bond Issue of 1956.

They were sold September 25 to the Mercantile Safe Deposit and Trust Company, Baltimore.

Christmas Club Savings Total About $750,000

Checks To Be Mailed During Next Month

Approximately three-quarters of a million dollars will be mailed out next month to nearly 9,000 members of Christmas Clubs who have been setting aside a little money each week and depositing it in local savings institutions or their branches.

A spokesman for the Liberty Trust Company announced last night that over $300,000 will be distributed to members of clubs of that company and its branch banks at LaVale and Lonaconing. He added that this figure does not include the accounts of the Commercial Savings Bank which merged with Liberty Trust early this year.

Addition of the Commercial Savings accounts is expected to boost the city's total of $709,000 over the three-quarter-million mark.

The First National Bank reported last night that about 2,000 members of the club at that bank will share in approximately $150,000.

A marked increase of Christmas Club members was cited by a spokesman for First Federal Savings and Loan Association. That institution will mail out about $120,000 to over 1,600 accounts.

Last year some 1,450 persons shared in savings totaling about $88,000. The Second National Bank reports that about 880 members of its club will share in approximately $75,000, and the checks will be mailed starting November 15.

This is the first year a club has been formed at the bank. In South Cumberland, a spokesman for the Cumberland Savings Bank pointed out that 764 members will be mailed some $64,025.

Police Probe $1,000 Theft

State and county authorities are continuing an investigation into a safe-cracking at Albert's Supermarket along Route 40 at Crystal Park which netted the culprits over $1,000 in cash.

The method of entry into the market has not been ascertained, according to Sgt. William F. Baker, criminal investigator for the Maryland State Police, and county Investigator Edwin R. Lijoy, who are investigating.

The intruders broke a glass pane from the office door and then smashed the dial on the safe and forced the door. The safe was badly damaged, according to authorities, who said the building was entered sometime Thursday night or early yesterday morning.

To Confer Degrees

Cumberland Lodge of Perfection, Scottish Rite Masons, will confer the sixth and 14th degrees on a class of 21 candidates Monday evening.

A business session will be held at 7:30 p. m. and degree work will start promptly at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served following the ceremonies.

A fellowship dinner will be held in the dining hall of the church at 12:30 p. m. The public is invited to the service and the dinner.

Rev. Mr. Miller will speak on "The Continuing Reformation."

C-47 Makes Emergency Landing

A C-47 Air Force plane, with 14 officers and an enlisted man aboard, made an emergency landing at the Municipal Airport at Wiley Ford Thursday after one of the two engines conked out.

The plane was reported to have been traveling from Denver, Colo., to Washington, D. C. A spokesman at the airport said the plane apparently developed engine trouble between here and Washington.

The pilot returned to the local airport after he was unable to land at the nation's capital. The military personnel continued their trip to Washington by car. The plane was still at the airport last night. When the weather clears, necessary parts will be flown here to repair the motor.

The big plane made the emergency landing about 4:30 p. m.

Soil Supervisors Plan Election Ending Nov. 27

Plans were completed yesterday for the election of three members of the Board of Supervisors of the Allegany Soil Conservation District for three-year terms.

Four men already have been endorsed for the offices and additional candidates have until November 2 to submit their petitions. The candidates need not be farmers but the 25 signers of their petitions must be land owners or land occupiers.

County Agent Joseph M. Steger said the election committee will meet November 3 and prepare the ballots. They will be mailed on or about November 9 and must be returned on or before Tuesday, November 27. That day a ballot box will be installed in Steger's office for deposit of ballots, although most ballots are expected to be mailed.

Already nominated are three incumbents, Floyd Buser, Oliver Belt Road; Ernest Slider, Town Creek; D. T. Puffinberger, Little Orleans. Granville Shumaker of Rawlings also has been nominated. Buser and Slider were elected in 1953 while Puffinberger was appointed to the remainder of Dale Mann's unexpired term.

The other two supervisors, Wilbert Paul of Mt. Savage and Charles Harvey of Shaft, are serving by appointment by the State Soil Conservation Committee.

State Secures 4,000-Acre Hunting Area

Small Section To Be Refuge

The Game and Inland Fish Commission has leased a large area of land on Big Savage Mountain to be used for managed wildlife purposes.

The 4,000-acre tract has been leased from the Borden Mining Company through Joseph H. Kruson, largely through the efforts of District Game Warden Theodore Thoeig.

With the exception of about 400 acres to be set aside for propagation purposes and a game refuge area, the remainder of the tract, much of which has been closed to hunting in the past, will now be used as public hunting grounds.

This tract, together with 4,600 acres which was obtained by Thoeig for the Fish and Game Commission in January 1954 from Blaine Frantz of Friendsville, makes a total of 8,600 acres of leased hunting grounds in Western Maryland, in addition to the vast acreage of state forest lands.

These acres are not only open to public hunting, Thoeig said, but are managed by the Fish and Game Commission to provide food and cover, which will in time, increase the game population in the area.

Thoeig said increased interest in hunting and the outdoors has created an acute shortage of public hunting grounds, and this added acreage which lies in both Allegany and Garrett counties will provide more recreational area and more game for sportsmen.

Zone Appeal Is Approved

The application of Frank J. Burton to construct a one-story dwelling on lots 231-232 Frederick Street was approved at a meeting of the Board of Zoning Appeals Thursday night in City Hall.

The request had been rejected because of the lack of side yard space, and Burton appealed to the board.

Approval was made on the basis that the building be kept in a designated area and conform with the alignment of other houses on the street.

The building would front on Frederick Street with a side yard on Fectig Avenue. The area involved is a Residential A section which requires 10-foot side yards. The application had stated one side yard would be two feet wide and the other eight feet.

The proposed dwelling will be 36 feet by 42 feet with concrete block foundation, frame walls and asphalt shingle roof. The property is owned by Reuben W. Eaton.

Members of the Zoning Board of Appeals are James C. Gardner, chairman, William B. Orndorff, and H. Clifford Spiker.

Police Seek Vandals Who Damaged Cars With Paint Remover

City police, in the face of a stern warning against Halloween pranks and vandalism issued by Chief of Police R. Emmett Flynn this week, were seeking vandals who ruined the paint on several cars in North End the past few days.

Police headquarters said there had been reports of at least two instances where vandals, using paint brushes and paint remover, had damaged the finish on the hoods and fenders of parked cars sometime at night.

Owners said the cars had been parked overnight. In the morning the paint had begun to peel off the vehicles.

With the cost of repainting the automobiles very high, police said that apprehension of the culprits could result in severe punishment for the vandalism.

Garden Club Will Show Canal Film

"The Old Canal," a scenic film about the historic old Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, will be shown here at 7:30 p. m. Monday, November 12, at Allegany High School auditorium under sponsorship of the Garden Club of Cumberland.

Mrs. Gilbert Miller, club president, said she hopes for a large crowd to see the film because nearly all Allegany County residents are interested in the development of the old canal.

This color film is considered a delightful and authentic portrayal of one of America's best preserved and least altered of its great canals of the 19th Century. Throughout the picture there are many scenic shots along the 183 miles of the canal as it winds its way along the Potomac River from Georgetown to Cumberland.

W. Bryant Tyrrell of Takoma Park, a photographer and naturalist, spent two years producing "The Old Canal." Tyrrell will be here in person to show the film.

The Garden Club has asked members of all organizations in and around Cumberland to announce the film showing.

Demos To Win In Maryland, Says Mahoney

Foresees Trend To His Party

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26 (AP) — George P. Mahoney, candidate for the U. S. Senate, claimed today that he and other Democrats "are in sight of victory" in Maryland.

"I have now campaigned in all 23 counties and Baltimore City," Mahoney said 10 days before the election, "and I can assure you that the trend is to the Democratic party and Democratic candidates."

In his own race against Republican Sen. Butler, Mahoney predicted "the people of Maryland are ready to right the wrong of 1950."

"Sen. Butler has gone on television to finally admit responsibility for his deceit and deception — six years too late."

"Pleaded Guilty"

"He has pleaded guilty. So there's nothing left to do but hand down the sentence. I trust the voters of Maryland to give him what he deserves on Nov. 6."

The Democrats have made much of the type of campaign waged in 1950 when Butler unseated the veteran Democrat, Millard Tydings. Butler in a much-heralded television talk Oct. 15 gave his side.

Tydings was nominated to oppose Butler again, but had to resign because of illness. Mahoney, runner-up in the Democratic primary, was named substitute opponent and he has classed himself as an "avenger" of Tydings.

He stated, however, "there are many other reasons why the people of Maryland should vote for a Democratic Senator."

Gas Bill Vote

He listed: "Half a million Marylanders have not forgotten that their Republican Senator voted for the natural gas bill. That bill is coming up again and if it is passed, it will increase cooking and heating costs. I will vote against that bill."

"My opponent gave tax cuts to the corporations. I am on record in favor of a tax cut which will save the average family with two children at least $160 a year."

"I will fight for your schools, for medical research, for hospitals and for the farmer and for the small businessmen. They have been neglected."

"It is our party which gave this nation social security, home owner's loans, unemployment compensation, fair labor standards, insured bank accounts and the GI Bill of Rights."

"That is the record of a party which works for you. And not just for special interests."

Jury Refuses Damages

An Allegany County Circuit Court jury yesterday decided that both drivers involved in a collision on Christie Road April 28 were guilty of contributory negligence so that neither is entitled to damages.

Clarence O. Atkinson, Christie Road, through Attorney William L. Wilson, filed a $2,500 damage suit against Wade Sheetz, 539 Louisiana Avenue, owner of a truck involved in a collision with his car on Christie Road.

Sheetz, through Attorney W. Earle Cobey, then filed a cross-claim for $1,000 against Atkinson, contending that he was responsible for the accident. Elmeda J. Corley was driving Sheetz's truck for the Tri-State Cleaners.

Rival attorneys stipulated that Atkinson's damages amounted to $400 and Sheetz's to $150.

Witnesses were: State Trooper Joseph V. Stakem, Atkinson, Richard Atkinson, his son; Miss Corley, Lloyd Hardman and Dorothy Gross, both of whom lived near where the accident occurred.

Ralph F. McHenry, retired county agent, was foreman of the jury. Associate Judge Morgan C. Harris presided at the trial.

Court Probates Walter Seal Will

Mahoney Gives Free 'Baloney,' Charges Butler

Senator Answers Attack On Prices

BALTIMORE, Oct. 26 (AP) — "The cheapest thing today is Mahoney baloney—he gives it away but unfortunately it is always contaminated," Republican Sen. Butler said today.

Butler's tag of "Mahoney baloney" was contained in a statement issued by his headquarters in an exchange on the high cost of living and who's responsible—Republicans or Democrats.

Butler's statement was in rebuttal to campaign remarks of his Democratic opponent, George P. Mahoney.

"My opponent said that since January 1953, the price of pork chops in Baltimore increased 20 per cent," read Butler's statement.

"Actually, according to official figures, the increase was 17.5 per cent," Butler said Mahoney also had ignored "foods that have had large price declines."

Rib Roast Cheaper

As specific examples, he said "the price of a rib roast had declined 12.5 per cent, or that round steak and hamburger has dropped 12 per cent."

In general, Butler continued, Bureau of Labor statistics show 1,915.51 "that from January 1953, when President Eisenhower took office, 7,733.63 to August 1956, the average retail price of food in Baltimore rose 9,002.37 only 1.2 per cent as compared with 4,568.17 a 58 per cent increase under 5,151.14 Harry Truman from 1946 to 1952."

Butler said Mahoney also failed to mention that "the average weekly earnings of Baltimore factory workers were increased 19 per cent and that Federal income tax rates for individuals were reduced 10 per cent" in the past three years.

The Senator listed these "further facts" to "prove that it is more of the Mahoney baloney... that we have been traveling the road to inflation pretty hard: On The Road

"1. From 1939 through 1952, new highs in the cost of living were recorded on 30 separate occasions."

"2. In that period, the cost of a dollars' worth of the things we need for daily living rose from $1 to $1.92."

"3. The cost of these same things today is $1.97. But never forget that this 97 cent rise since 1939, the inflationary policies of the previous administrations accounted for 92 cents and the stabilizing policies of the Eisenhower Administration for just 5 cents."

While his headquarters fought the battle of the cost of living with Mahoney, Butler personally went after the votes of Baltimore's port workers.
